Dear Kymberly,

You wrote to me the other day "Doris, you're the best" – well, I don't know about that, but I try to do a bit of constituent's input, as long as it's only from the comfort of my computer chair, LOL! Kymberly, what is your position on the bus advertisement, please? Hope that's not too personal a question. It is a difficult decision. Of course, extra revenue is ALWAYS tempting, but marked—up bus exteriors may just simply not look so great. I think one reason why we don't seem to mind eye-catching ads on other tour buses and trolleys is because, ultimately, there are relatively few. But to get the whole Honolulu bus fleet painted up with slogans – I don't think so. Once advertisements are in place – AND NOBODY LIKES THEM – they'll be hard to undo. I will support your view, however. Mahalo – DORIS DOMINGO!
